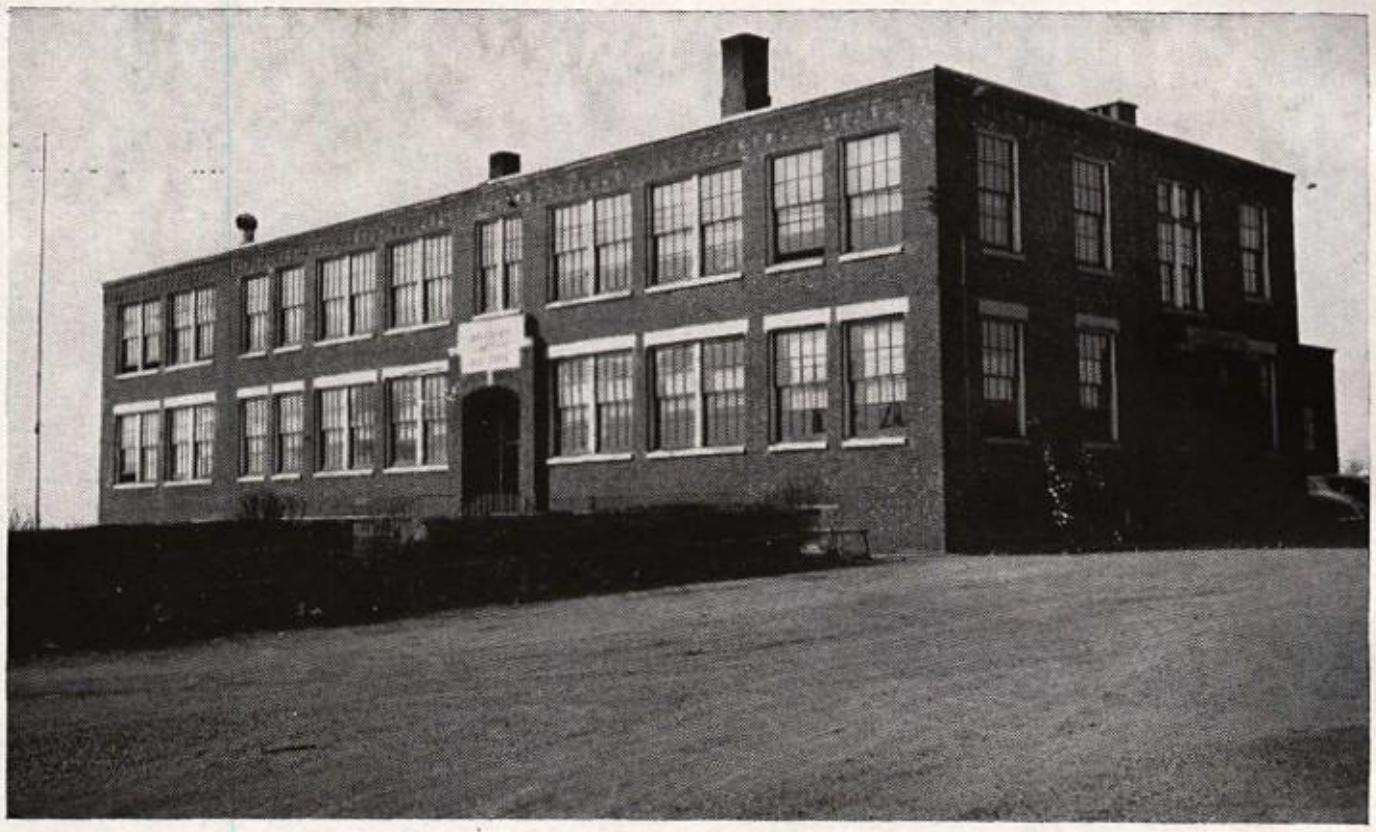
Edition Nine



Our Symphony

Like a symphony
With its changing moods,
With its joyous lilt,
Into which intrudes
A minor key;

Like its sweeter tones,
Its soft refrains,
That break with joy
Into brilliant chains
Of blending chords;

Like its many parts
Both sad and gay,
Such is our life,
Such is each day —
Our symphony.

"Give My Regards to Broadway"

SENIOR PLAY

"Brother Goose"

By William Davidson

The footlights came on, the house lights were dimmed, and the curtains parted. What a laugh the audience had when they saw Walter Frank as Jeff in a brotherly fashion operating a sewing machine in his desire to help out the family who had been left as orphans. Carol played by Carolyn Adams never gave up hope that her limerick on "Wheat Puffies" would win for her a new Chrysler. Shirley Mack as Hy, who had her heart set on playing football, kept the audience in laughter by her many pranks. She caused Helen, played by Beverly Prather, to quit her job as maid at the Adam's home. Lenore, portrayed by Annabel Trump, also ended with a bad case of poison ivy, which Hy had purposely arranged. Dale Miller, the angry truck driver, was also enraged by the "Wheat Puffies" which he found is his gas tank. Ruth Roudabush played the part of a negro maid, Sarah, who livened many scenes of the play. A human dynamo with a mania for efficiency in her "Wee Blue Inn Plans" well described Eva Richards as Mrs. Trimmer. Tom Kuhn as Wes, finally made a big hit with Eve, the southern charmer, played by June Machamer. Their motorcycle scene brought many laughs from the audience. Peggy, played by Betty Lou Carr, won the favor of all, especially Jeff, with her understanding and sweet manner.

Between acts Miriam Adams helped make a perfect evening by her piano solos between acts.

A Sonata in Four Movements

Class History

ANDANTE

The year 1942, the day September 8th. We, as Freshmen, propelled ourselves through the portals of Marlboro High School to commence four of our most memorable years. Under the able guidance of Mr. Krabill, the class became accustomed to our new role. Capably serving us as our officers were Bill Cole as president, Ted Draa, vice-president, and Eileen Wise, secretary-treasurer.

Our "greenness" was soon evoked from us by a rigid program of book-carrying, command obeying, and climaxing with the initiation ceremonies under the supervision of the Sophomores. The girls were costumed in outfits consisting of long underwear, men's work shoes, and a green sash to complete a color scheme of green and white, "pure ignorance." Onions and curlers completed the coiffure to enhance the charm of our appearance. The male members of the class were bedecked in diapers, and green paint was quite in evidence on their feet. Through all our "torture," we grinned and bore it, emerging to become full-fledged members of Marlboro High School.

Even so early in our high school career, it was prophetic that ours would be a great class. Two of our members, Irvin Fawver and Dale Miller were widely esteemed as outstanding cagers. And of course, Eileen Wise was always at the games to help lead the cheering section. Our musicianship was displayed by the presence of 13 "Frosh" in the band and 16 Freshman voices adding to the harmony of Girls Chorus. In keeping with our versatility, the Scholarship team was also augmented by the knowledge of members of the Class of '46, namely: Eileen Wise, Tom Kuhn, Carolyn Adams and Miriam Adams.

ALLEGRO

The explosion heard on September 7, 1943, was not due to dynamite but to the escaping energies of the Sophomore class. To lead our new 43 members, the class selected Walter Frank, president, Tom Kuhn, vice-president, and Eileen Wise, secretary-treasurer.

Aside from our scholastic achievements throughout the year, we found ample time for amusement. The year was begun by extending a hearty, "come-or you'll-be-sorry," initiation to the "Greenies" to present themselves for judgment before their superiors as to their fitness to enter our sacred portals. Oh, what fun to watch them become "legal" members of Marlboro High! However, one event we did not enjoy was the departure of Mr. Krabill in February because of the war. It was at this time that Miss Eleanor Haidet became our sponsor.

The basketball team this year was supplemented by the excellent performances of Tom Kuhn, Charles Janello, Irvin Fawver, Dale Miller, Dave Rambsel, and Russ Wymer. Several sophomores also made their contributions to the band, glee clubs, and scholarship team this year.

BRILLIANTE

Our Junior year, and we really settled down. No one needed to worry because he forgot his lunch. "Delicious" candy, crisp potato chips, and all other edible products - - excluding only a few - - were sold by our industrious business magnetes. Tom Kuhn as president, Bill Cole as vice-president, Shirley McPherson, secretary and Eileen Wise, treasurer, led the class in our efforts this year.

Early in the fall, we were spectators at the Canton Lehman football game. As usual, everyone had a wonderful time. However, on February 21, the Juniors gave a farewell party for Jack Hinds which we enjoyed except for its purpose.

The day before election, November 7, the Republican team, mostly Juniors, embattled the Democrats. No topic needed. The school "went" Republican; the nation did not quite conform to our example. Ah well, there's always 1948.

Marlboro's Dukes had quite a successful campaign this year, winding up the season fourth in the county. Possibly the skill of the Juniors and those "Butch" hair cuts did the trick.

Our Junior year was quite eventful. On March 8, recognition services were held for the first Marlboro club of Girl Reserves. Miss Haidet and Miss Brenneman were our patronesses and we were afforded much joy through our club work.

Later in the Spring, the eleventh graders were imploring everyone to purchase a box of palatable chocolates - - very nicely wrapped we might add. This proved a wise move with regard to our pecuniary situation.

To climax a unique year, the Juniors augmented their list of accomplishments by presenting the Junior-Senior Prom at Congress Lake Country Club on May 3. The dinner was excellent, the orchestra wonderful, and the evening superb.

GRANDIOSO

On September 8, thirty-four Seniors presented themselves to answer the roll call of their last year at Marlboro High School. At our initial class meeting of the year, we elected for our President, Tom Kuhn; Vice-President, Walter Frank; Secretary, Eileen Enoch, and Treasurer, Eileen Wise.

This year, it was we Seniors who had to grow accustomed to unfamiliar faces, the new teachers as well as new students. We were overjoyed, however, to have Miss Haidet with us again. Oh, yes, we might also add that upon checking our membership, we find that we are to be the largest class to graduate from Marlboro and of course, it goes without saying, that we are also the best.

Allowing no grass to grow under our feet, we sponsored a roller skating party at the Land O' Dance. What fun. Ouch ! ! !

In November, the halls of Marlboro High School were filled with a blinding light. It could have been the sun. It could have been the searchlight. But no, it was neither of these. The blinding glare was merely the sparkle of the new Senior rings. Are they beauties!

Also with coming of November, there came the problem of the Senior play. However, the play and cast were soon chosen. Then came the joy of skipping classes for play practice. December 14 and 15 brought the big event. "Brother Goose" was a huge success from the stellar role to the smallest walk-on; from the sound effects to the well-executed football play in the third act. On December 29, the play cast enjoyed a dinner at the Sue Ming Restaurant and later the picture "Stork Club."

Haggart Hall was the scene of the second Senior fun fest. Music was furnished by the juke box and everyone had an enjoyable evening.

After struggling through two days of mental torture, exams to the laymen, we began the grueling work of assembling the "Scenario."

This year our basketball team was really hot! Marlboro wound up its season third in the percentage rating and fifth in the tournament. The shining stars of the Seniors this year were Dale Miller, Tom Kuhn, Walt Frank, Charlie Janello and Russell Wymer.

The new year 1946 rolled on quite blissfully. Then came Senior Day, April 5. Classes and even the meals were prepared by the Ph. D's of the Senior Class. Needless to say the day went like clockwork - - the clock was minus a few springs!

Putting forth their best mental efforts in the scholarship tests were Tom Kuhn, June Machamer, Betty Lou Carr, Walt Frank, Lois Dillon, Lois Slabaugh, Carolyn Adams and Miriam Adams.

Tempus fugit! The Seniors now are thirty-four solemn yet happy persons. The night of graduation is here. "Do You Have What It Takes" was the topic of our graduation address, brought to us by Mr. N. C. Turner. Diplomas were then presented.

Our high school days are now over, but we shall never stop learning. With these words our motto, We Seniors advance into a new realm of education -

"The past forever gone,
The future still our own."

"Til The End of Time"

"There's A Great Day Coming, Manana"

Class Prophecy

It's raining outside and my lessons are getting dull, so like all natural people my thoughts are beginning to stray away. Yes, it's a funny thing the way one drifts into the Land of Imagination. Now the rain has stopped, for I've just entered the gates of Wonderland. My mind is running wild, because I'm living ten years from the present and I visualize all my class mates in their various walks of life. Oh! this land is a wonderful place to live. Bear with me my readers, for I'm on my way to tell you what we Seniors are doing in this year 1956.

Gosh, one no more than gets started when who does one meet but the Adams Twins, Carolyn and Miriam. There are now holding the two top positions at the "Gomper Girls Academy." I leave them and further down Imaginary Lane I meet Betty Lou Carr, who is now Poet Laureate of Ohio. Congratulations Betty, and more power to you! Before she leaves, she tells me that Mary Beutler and Norene Cherry are running a department store, "Fashions in Canton," with "We Please All, Large and Small," as their motto.

On I go drifting along in a happy-go-lucky manner. Talking about happy-go-lucky people, whom should I find myself face to face with but Ted Draa, the chief fisherman along the Yukon River in Alaska. As Ted and I are talking, we see a man in the distance coming upon us at a terrific clip. This puzzles me but Ted claims it is Charlie Janello, the miler from Kansas University, who is training for his next cross country event. Now along comes Melvin Haines and his wife, Eileen Enoch Haines, in their '56 jet-propelled Chrysler. Haines relates that he is settled in New Baltimore and enjoys it immensely. They tell me that Ruth Roudebush is keeping house for them and is the best maid they've had for six months.

Further along Day Dreamers' Avenue I see a big factory with smoke pouring out of its smokestack. Upon inquiring, I find that this is the "Big Three Construction Corporation" owned and operated by Harold Vickers, Ralph Green and Paul Kandel. Gee, it's a "smazzola" of a place with offices and side building covering nearly two acres. Evelyn Kenaley is the receptionist and a mighty pleasing one indeed. Beverly Prather, Alverna Smith and Lois Dillon work in the executive office with three assistants under them. Next I find myself rather hungry, so I'll stop at a little restaurant just around the corner entitled "Super Sandwich Shop." The owner is Mary Gressinger. Mary relates to me that Eileen Wise is in pictures at M. G. M. and has just completed her latest picture "Hold Me Tight." Shirley Mack it at Warner Brothers and doing equally well.

It just struck me that Donna Zwick is working at the Monarch Rubber Company at Hartville. She is doing well and is supposed to get a raise next week. Speaking of Monarch Rubber, I remember having been told Lois Slabaugh is head economist at the company. Her practical ideas are one reason why they are a strong-going concern. Trudging lazily along I meet Annabel Trump humming a soft lullabye. She sings at the Metropolitan Opera House every Sunday, so tune in to hear her some time. Leaving Annabel I see June Machamer who is now a model at the Halle Brothers Store in Cleveland. Across the street a ball game is going on, and Dale Miller is playing shortstop for the home town team. He's still in the Minors; but at the rate he is propressing, he'll be in the Majors within two years.

Near the ball park I hear an argument going on. In the midst of it all is Tom Kuhn, Democrat from Ohio, trying to swing a few radicals over to his party. After the game two clowns come onto the field for a comedy act. Inquiring who they are, I'm told they are none other than Bill Cole and Russ Wymer. It was just like the days back at school, the way they cut up. Next one I talked to was Eva Richards who is doing fine as an architect for the "Rib Roofed Housing Company." Wilda Hinds and Anna Begue are beauty operators in Chicago. No wonder those Chicago women are noted for fabulous hair styles. In case you get sick in this great land of Imagination there's a nurse, Wilma Eshelman, who'll fix you up in a jiffy. Turning the corner I come to a large mirror. Looking in, I see a young man dressed in military attire. Looking more closely I see Walt Frank hailing from the Coast Guard Academy where he has just been promoted to a lieutenant.

Now I'm coming to the end of my mission here, and as I pass out of Wonderland, John Smith and his Swinging Trumpeteers play "Auld Lang Syne."

Here, I am back in study hall, and it's still raining. At any rate that's a bird's eye view of us Seniors of 1946.

"Memories"

Our School days are over,
Our youth is almost past,
But memories will always hover,
As long as our memories last.

We'll always remember Marlboro High
As a special part of our lives;
We'll remember the teachers who helped us by
Longer than anyone can surmise.

We wish that we could linger longer,
And stay with all our friends,
But as those who have gone before us,
We, too, must follow life's trends.

Our school days are gone
With all their jokes and fears,
And as our caps and gowns we don,
We know we'll remember them through the years.

We have but one thought
As we enter the unknown;
"The past is forever gone,
The future is still our own."

We leave our school days all behind,
As we wander into the world,
And I think we'll find it's not so kind
As the school where our minds unfurled.

Sharps and Flats of the Minor Keys

Notes on the Juniors

We started our Junior year with Mrs. Matthews as our sponsor, but during the second semester Mr. Barry took over this position. We were also aided by Mr. Maurer, our home room teacher. The business of selling candy was given to us at the first of the year. We also sold occasional cards, boxed candy for Easter, and hotdogs and potato chips at all our home games. We found time to sponsor a Thanksgiving dance in the auditorium, and also had a theater part at Canton. As our crowning achievement we showed the seniors an excellent time at the prom which was held at Shady Hollow Country Club. We enjoyed entertaining the seniors and hope they had a good time.

Officers elected at the beginning of the year are as follows: Millard Shreiner, president; Glenn Gilcrest, vice-president; Norma Lare, secretary, Helen Summers, treasurer.

1st row: Mr. Maurer, Delilah Machamer, Geneva VanCamp, Betty Fausnight, Barbara Vaughn, Ethel Vaughn, LaVera Green, Herbert Slusser, Mr. Barry.

3rd row: James Vaughn, Irene Ohman, Glenn Gilcrest, Margaret Bradley, Mildred Ebie, Leonard Bahler.

4th row: Millard Scheiner, Melvin Quillen, Robert Freshley, Willard Uplinger, John Moore.

5th row: Doris Karlen, Thresa Frank, Noma Lare, Marvin Moulin.

Notes on the Sophomores

The Sophomore class began their second year with Mrs. Deshler as their sponsor. Melvin Sledden, Harold Moore, and John Daianu joined the class at the beginning of the year. We lost Dwight to the armed forces; also Sally Henson, our "A" student left for the warm Florida climate for the winter making our membership thirty-eight. On October 25th, we gave an initiation party for the Freshmen at Skateland in Canton. We all had a very nice time despite the jars and bumps received by the Freshmen. We ended a successful year with a buffet dinner and dance in the high school auditorium.

Early in the year we elected our officers which are as follows: Dick Candle, president; Bill Breit, vice-president; Susanne Werner, secretary; Shirley Seifert, treasurer.

1st row: Dale Sweitzer, Malden Sledden, Grace VanCamp, Ruth Haswell, Susanne Werner, Joanne Werner, Bill Briet, Donald Ruffier, Mrs. Deshler.

4th row: Thanet Machamer, Edna Walker, Shirley Wearstler, Belo Kenaley.

5th row: Glenna Wearstler, Grace Haines, Esther Frank, Shirley Seifert.

Notes on the Freshmen

The Freshman class started the year with 44 answering the roll call. New in Marlboro High was our able sponsor, Miss Gibson. To guide us we elected Paul Gressinger, president; Floyd Haines, vice-president; Margaret Vaughn, secretary; Edward Thornberry, treasurer. We were very lucky as Freshmen, for our initiation consisted of a very nice roller skating party given us by the Sophomores. Later in the year we had an excellent time at a theater party in Canton.

We were well represented on the reserve team by Gus Bradley, Paul Gressinger, Earl Haines, Roy Burke, Junior Haines, and Edward Thornberry. Gus Bradley also served as a player for the varsity team.

2nd row: Ruby Kandel, Jean Frank, Arlene Kyle, Pauline Gressinger, Bill Mowry, Floyd Haines.

5th row: Dorothy Carr, Catherine Fausnight, Edith Sweitzer, James Devies, Louis Begue, Earl Hostettler.

6th row: Roy Burk, Earl Haines, Raymond Richards, Donald Myers, Gus Bradley.

Notes on the Eighth Grade

The eighth graders provided 38 names for the teachers' grade books when we started our second year of Junior High under the guidance of Miss Wearstler. As our leaders we chose: Francis Prather, president; Dwaine Barret, vice-president; Ruth McDermitt, treasurer; Joan Mori, secretary. The class held a weiner roast at Sunset Park on September 20. Needless to say, the evening was enjoyed by all. We enjoyed ourselves just as much at our second party held in our school auditorium. We were sorry to lose during the year, three members: Dorothy Matthews, Cloteel Matthews, and Junior Robson. However, we welcomed a new member, Flora Mastroianni.

Comprising a major part of the Junior High Basketball Team are as follows. Bill Ohman, Albert Ohman, David Race, Junior Thornberry, Dick Royer and Earnest Walker.

5th row: Carl Richards, David Race, Duane Bergert, Lloyd Ebie, Susanne Szekeley, Anita Toderan.

Notes on the Seventh Grade

Thirty-seven pupils were happy to answer "present" in September as they started their Junior High life. We were sponsored by Miss Young who was very helpful with suggestions for our parties. Ronald Davis, president; Joseph Werner, vice-president; Mary Smith, secretary; Paul Slabaugh, treasurer, served as the class officers. We were unfortunate to lose three members: Carrol Matthews, Fred Henson, and Kenneth Reninger. At the end of the first semester we held a party in the school auditorium.

The Junior High team was graced by the presence of three of our fellow classmates: Wayne Snyder, Bob Bloss, and Hugh Roudabush.

1st row: Alice Krichbaum, Paul Slabaugh, Mary Kuhn, Richard Bergert, Joe Werner, Charlotte Thompson, James Bahler, Marilyn Weisel, Miss Young.

3rd row: Ronald Davis, Mickey McDermitt, Hugh Roudabush, John Kramer, Arlene Royer, Edith Tope.

5th row: Bill Schnase, Everett Monroe.

Marlboro's Music Makers

MARLBORO

"Strike Up the Band"
BAND

The band began the year with twenty-seven regulars returning. Also, during the year, new members were trained and took their seats in the band. Under the able baton of Miss Gibson we played for several pep rallies, thus adding a new and peppy flavor to them. We also entertained at Farmers' Institute with several number. The following are some of the pieces were worked on during the year: "Sweethearts" from Maytime; "Washington Post March," "Anchors Aweigh," "Military Escort," and various novelty numbers from our new books. It seemed that we were inspired to even better playing after our shiny new music stands made their appearance. All in all, we had a very successful year.

"Let's All Sing Like the Birdies Sing"
GIRLS GLEE CLUB

The Girls Glee Club met this year under the direction of Miss Phyllis Gibson. She had been a very able instructor and we were sorry that her illness prevented her from helping us further. Our activities were to have included a spring concert, but it was postponed due to her illness. Severel members of the group entertained members of the Farmers Institute and entered the Literary competition at Canton Township School.

"Listen to the Mocking Birds"
BOYS GLEE CLUB

Twelve boys composed the crooning section of our Glee Club this year. The class met the fourth period on Monday and Friday. All of us who participated in the choral singing had a good time. We, of the Glee Club, would like to thank Miss Gibson for her efforts and patience in giving us the music ability which we have acquired this year. We don't rate with the top crooners, Como and Crosby, but we did make great strides in the right direction.

Our Outside Life

"Tea for Two"
HOME EC CLUB

"The Future Homemakers of Tomorrow" started off this year by adding a lot of new members to the club. The 60 members elected the following officers: President, Eileen Enoch; Vice-President, Eileen Wise; Secretary, Mary Sue Austin; Treasurer, Betty Lou Carr; Social Chairman, June Machamer; Program Chairmen, Shirley Mack and Theresa Frank; Refreshment Chairman, Wilda Hinds.

They decided to hold their meetings on the first and third Wednesdays of every month during the 8th period.

Since we are now members of the State and National Future Homemakers of America, on October 5, we sent representatives to the regional and state conferences. Members from all over Ohio were present. The girls had a very nice time.

On December 17th a Christmas Party was held at the school. A chili supper was served and gifts were exchanged.

On March 17th a roller skating party was sponsored by the club. The whole high school was invited.

The Mother and Daughter Banquet was held on April 18th with Mrs. Kurtz, as the speaker, giving a very interesting book report. A literary theme was carried out both in the decorations and the program.

The girls appreciated the assistance of their advisor, Miss Young.

"Follow the Gleam"
GIRL RESERVE

The Girl Reserves met on February 30th, under the guidance of Miss Haidet. The following officers were elected: President, Eileen Wise; Vice-President, Annabel Trump; Secretary, Miriam Adams; Treasurer, Eileen Enoch; Program Chairman, Lois Dillon.

On March 1st the girls held their recognition service. Any girl in the Junior or Senior Class wishing to become a member was taken into the club. The mothers were the special guests of the girls. Refreshments were served after a very nice program followed by a quiz contest between the mothers and daughters. The daughters won by two points.

A picnic was held at the end of the year to which the girls each asked a guest.

"Give a Cheer"
BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club was organized this year under the guidance of Mr. Dutka. They chose as their leaders: President, Eileen Wise; Vice-President, John Smith; Secretary, Bill Breit and Treasurer, Mary Sue Austin.

Season tickets were sold which greatly aided the athletic fund. The club ardently followed the team both at home and away, greatly boostering their morale and cheering them on to their many victories.

At noon the club assembled, and both old and new yells were presented and practiced before the group by the cheerleaders.

The Club was organized not only to cheer our team, but to boost all of our school activities in general.

The Publishers
NEWSPAPER STAFF

The newspaper staff is a very select group. It is one of the few activities in Marlboro High which contain members of all the classes of the school. The class reporters were elected by the members of the respective classes. Through careful observation, the other members of the staff were chosen according to past experience and the ability that they now show. The Seniors want to compliment the newspaper staff on their fine work which they have done this year. We especially want to thank Mrs. Deshler for her valuable time and her continued patience since she became advisor of the Newspaper Staff.

1st row: Geneva Van Camp, Mary Kuhn, Mary Beutler, Betty Fausnight, Eileen Enoch, Ethel Vaughn, Susanne Werner, Joanne Werner, Mrs. Deshler.

4th row: Carolyn Adams, Miriam Adams, Annabel Trump, Esther Frank, Shirley Seifert, Doris Karlen, Alverna Smith.

5th row: Gus Bradley, Dale Miller, Millard Shreiner, Bill Breit, Walter Frank, editor; Tom Kuhn, Helen Summers, Beverly Prather, Lois Slabaugh.

The Composers
ANNUAL STAFF

The first of the year and the first work on the annual began. The class elected Carolyn Adams editor and Eileen Wise business manager. With the aid of Miss Haidet and Tom Kuhn they selected the following people to compose the ninth edition of the Scenario. Assistant Business Manager, Tom Kuhn; Class History, Miriam Adams; Class Prophecy, Walter Frank; Calendar, Lois Dillon; Sports, Dale Miller; Class Reporters, Alverna Smith and Betty Lou Carr; Literary and Music, Annabel Trump; Club News, Eileen Enoch; Class Will, Shirley Mack; Snapshots, Bill Cole and Russell Wymer; and Poems, Eva Richards and Beverly Prather.

We wish to thank Miss Haidet and the other teachers for the co-operation they have given us in the writing of this annual.

3rd row: Walter Frank, Tom Kuhn, Bill Cole, Dale Miller, Russ Wymer.

"Blue Ridge Mountains"
HIGH SCHOOL PLAY

"SET A THIEF"

Tony Kesnick, a movie producer, and Cris Perkins, a scenario writer, come to the Blue Ridge Mountains to get an atmosphere for a hillbilly film which they are making. They meet the hillbilliest gang that ever ran a moonshine still. Romance, mountain feuds, and other hillbilly thrills made the play quite interesting.

Those taking part were as follows:

TONY KESNICK ..... Russ Wymer
CRIS PERKINS ..... Bill Cole
CALEB FORSYTE ..... Melvin Quillen
SALLY BETT ..... Joanne Werner
HANNIBAL ..... Dick Kandel
MARY LEE ..... Mary Sue Austin
BIDDY AUSTIN ..... Ethel Vaughn

Day By Day

I think that I shall never see
A student body such as we,
And just to show you what we are
We'll let you read our Calendar.

Sept. 4 School started for the last time for the Seniors. There were a lot of new thorns among the old.

Sept. 5 Oh! How I hate to get up in the morning. Second day of school. Students met the new teachers, Miss Gibson, Mrs. Matthews, Miss Wearstler, Mrs. Deshler, and Mr. Dietrich.

Sept. 6 The more we associate with Mr. Barry the better we like him.

Sept. 15 Senior jackets arrived. Now they don't need armstrong heaters. Oh! No!

Sept. 20 The 8th grade held a weiner roast at Sunset Park. Who burnt my weiners?

Oct. 2 Hurray! Look who showed up today. Mr. Dutka is back on the teaching staff after serving with the Coast Guard.

Oct. 3 Same old Dutka, the big tease!

Oct. 5 We could lay in bed as long as we wanted to. The Teachers Institute was held at Reedurban.

Oct. 12 Our first assembly. Oh, how we hate to miss classes? Miss McBurney certainly was interesting and especially to our budding artists.

Oct. 19 Whoops! Bang! Senior roller skating party at Land-O-Dance.

Oct. 20 Why is everybody going around with sore bones and knees, and wanting to stand all the time. Couldn't be from last night, or could it?

Oct. 25 Freshmen Reception. Now the Freshies are "really in."

Oct. 26 All the teachers went to Cleveland (or did they?) This is simply awful having to miss so much school.

Oct. 30 Greentown football game.

Nov. 1 Minerva took a trouncing from Marlboro's Eleven. Naturally we won.

Nov. 2 All-High-School Dance. We danced to the music of the . . . .juke box.

Nov. 3 Wally's tooth certainly looks natural.

Nov. 9 Mrs. DeWitt from Mount Union talked to the Seniors about going to college.

Nov. 14 Each Senior now has a personal spotlight. Their rings.

Nov. 16-17 High School Play, "Set A Thief," was a success.

Nov. 19 Miss Gibson has a reason to be proud of her sparkler.

Nov. 20 Another dance. This time sponsored by the Juniors. The gym was very prettily decorated.

Nov. 21 I guess I shouldn't worry if other people walked on my feet, I did myself.

Nov. 22 Thanksgiving vacation started at 3:30.

Nov. 26 School resumed. Can anybody think of anymore excuses to miss school?

Nov. 30 Just a poem from English IV Class:

I think that I shall never see
A boy who quite appeals to me.
A boy who doesn't always wear
A slab of grease upon his hair,
A boy who wears his shirttail in
And doesn't wear a sickly grin.
But boys are loved by fools like me
For who on earth would date a tree?

Dec. 2 Junior jackets were received. Don't they look snazzy!

Dec. 8 Hartville, there. A sizzling game to the very end with Marlboro coming out on top. The first time for Marlboro for a number of years.

Dec. 14 First night of the Senior play, "Brother Goose," was a huge success. Shirley, we'll just have to make the stage larger.

Dec. 15 Second night of our play was an even bigger success, if possible. Thanks Miss Haidet, for all your help.

Dec. 17 Seniors started coming to all their classes again after their vacation for play practice.

Dec. 18 Home Economics Club had a Christmas party and a dinner before the Middlebranch basketball game.

Dec. 20 Tonight the grade school shines with their Christmas program. It really is surprising how nice a program they gave.

Dec. 21 Christmas assembly. The grades presented their program again for a very appreciative audience. Santa Claus also received some letters (?).

Jan. 2 Vacation enjoyed by all, but there wasn't enough of it.

Jan. 3 Miss Haidet, please put you right hand over your left. That reflection is blinding us!

Jan. 8 Juniors are proud of their rings also.

Jan. 10 Seniors decided to get their second activity in before the end of the semester. A party was held at Haggart Hall.

Jan. 11 Other people have the same idea. The 7th grade held a party in the auditorium.

Jan. 15 Another assembly program. "Rip Van Winkle" was admirably presented by "The Ellis.'" Also on the same supporting list were two great players, Mary Kuhn and Joe Werner. Lookout Broadway!

Jan. 15 Juniors had a theater party and invited boys. I wonder if they had a good time?

Jan. 18 Hartville here. It was a thrill to romp over the Blue Streaks and to beat them by 18 points.

Feb. 4 Farmers' Institute. Gee, they don't have it here at the school anymore so we can get out of classes. Only the ones on the program went to New Baltimore.

Feb. 9 Teachers Institute at Timken Vocational High School in Canton. (Wonder if anybody went?)

Feb. 14 Basketball Tournament at Massillon.

Feb. 15 First game we beat Hartville by one point.

Feb. 16 Second game we beat Jackson Twp. by two points.

Feb. 22 Played Waynesburg. They put us in the consolation semi-finals.

Feb. 23 Middlebranch knocked us out of the tournament.

Feb. 25 Seniors selected their invitations for graduation.

March 1 Initiates were taken into the Girl Reserve Club. Very impressive and enjoyed by all.

March 8 Brainy students of the Senior Class went to Canton Township to show how much they didn't know.

March 16 Tra-la-la, So, Mi, Do. Music contest at Canton Twp. All that participated received very high ratings.

March 23 Friends, Romans, Countrymen! Oration and Dramatic Readings contest at Canton Township. Orations were highest in the county.

March 29 Look at me go! Whee! Whoops! Bang! Ouch! Here I'll help you up. Home Ec Club skating party.

April 5 8th grade party. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

April 6 As their last social of the year, the sophomores had a buffet dinner and dance in school auditorium.

April 8 Arnold's Barnyard Frolics entertained the student body. Everyone would have liked to watch all the rest of the day.

April 12 Scholarship tests held here in the morning. Several came out quite high.

April 18 Mother and Daughter Banquet. Had a swell dinner, especically when it was served by the boys.

April 24 G. R. Picnic at Silver Park. Am I full!

April 26 Open house. The students all are good artists. Their masterpieces should be shown in New York's Art Institute.

May 1 Next word, Cat - K-a-t! That's right! Spelling contest with the winners going to district contest.

May 2 Junior-Senior Prom held at Shady Hollow. A wonderful time was enjoyed by all.

May 3 I wonder why the Juniors and Seniors are all going around yawning at each other.

May 9 Recognition Banquet. Letters and awards were given.

May 19 Baccalaureate.

May 23 Commencement.

May 24 The end of school for seniors and the end for the rest of the students until next September.

LITERARY

This year members of the Literary Club attained unprecedented heights of glory when their ratings were learned. These honors were especially coveted as the girls had no music instructor to aid them.

Ratings are as follows:

TRIO ..... Superior
Shirley Mack, Mary Beutler, Annabel Trump, Carolyn Adams, accompanist

SEXTETTE ..... Superior
Mary Beutler, Donna Zwick, Eva Richards, Eileen Enoch, Shirley Mack, Lois Slabaugh, Carolyn Adams, accompanist

QUARTETTE ..... Excellent
Barbara Vaughn, Norma Lare, Ethel Vaughn, Delilah Machamer, Miriam Adams, accompanist

PIANO SOLO ..... Superior
Carolyn Adams

PIANO SOLO ..... Excellent
Miriam Adams

In the oration and declamation department, we find a member who won the honor of first place in the county, Norma Lare.

ORATION, "He's Your Brother" ..... Superior
Norma Lare

ORATION, "The Heritage of American Youth"
Eva Richards ..... Excellent

DECLAMATION, "White Lilacs" ..... Good
LaVera Green

DECLAMATION, "China Blue Eyes" ..... Fair
Betty Carr

SENIOR HONORS

As a senior class, all of the students were outstanding in some field or other. However, we wish to give special credit to these six seniors who have consistently attained top grades.

Carolyn and Mirian Adams ..... Co-valedictorians
Lois Dillon ..... Salutatorian
Eileen Wise ..... Third Honor
June Machamer ..... Fourth Honor
Tom Kuhn ..... Fifth Honor

SCHOLARSHIP TEAM

Everybody's studying! Everybody's reviewing! Exam time? NO! It's scholarship time again. All students are interested in making a good showing for their "alma mater."

The following students have been selected to participate:

BASKETBALL

Marlboro's Dukes played 21 games this year. Twelve of these games were in the league, 4 were tournament games, and 5 were non-league games. The Dukes were victorious in 13 games and were defeated in 8. This year's varsity was comprised of five seniors, five juniors, and one freshman. Scoring this season was well distributed among the players since all the players worked together.

The biggest boost to Marlboro's morale came when we knew we had defeated Hartville three times in one season, a feat which had not been equaled for fourteen years.

Marlboro's Reserve team was comprised of Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors. Although they were inexperienced, they showed great promise for the coming seasons.

The following players added their bits to the Reserve team: Paul Gressinger, Dick Candle, Bill Breit, Kenneth Ringer, Bob Albrich, Edward Thornberry, Earl Haines, Jim Vaughn, Millard Shreiner, Bill Bloss, Roy Burk and Jack Wearstler.

The teams this year were managed by Marvin Moulin, Donald Gibson, Wayne Karlen and John Smith.

The following scores are a tribute to the excellent playing of Marlboro's Dukes.

Marlboro	39	Greentown	27
Marlboro	28	Middlebranch	23
Marlboro	33	Uniontown	23
Marlboro	35	Canal Fulton	33	(overtime)
Marlboro	43	Hartville	25
Marlboro	35	Navarre	36
Marlboro	40	East Sparta	29

Although a great amount of credit goes to the boys, an equal amount should be accredited the coach, Harry Dutka.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

"Never too young to learn" is the policy Marlboro High School followed this year to assure themselves future victories in basketball. Under the coaching of Mr. Dietrich the team learned the fundamentals of good basketball. They proved their ability by the many games which they won during the season. They were of great aid to their class teams when they took part in the intramural games during the noon hour.

Appearing in the picture are:

Dick Royer, Bill Ohman, Ernest Walker, Dave Reese, Mr. Dietrich, Bob Fausnight, Albert Ohman, Jim Snyder.

BASEBALL

Marlboro Dukes started the 1946 season with five regulars returning from last year's team which lost only one game, that being to Waynesburg in the tournament. The five returning are:

Tom Kuhn	2B	407	875
Dale Miller	SS	386	744
Walter Frank	1B	258	958
Russell Wymer	3B	.059	722
Charles Janello	CF	207	875
Millard Shriener	RF	250	1000

Those who were not regulars are: Ted Draa, Bill Cole, Bill Bloss, Melvin Quillen.

Last year's batting crown went to Tom Kuhn. With the last game of the season Tom finished with a .407 average. His running mate, Dale Miller, collected the most hits, acquiring 12 hits out of 31 times at bat. Three players hit over .300 and one over the .400 mark.

The following is the schedule of last year's season including the scores.

Marlboro	4	Louisville	2
Marlboro	7	Hartville	5
Marlboro	0	Waynesburg	1
Marlboro	12	Middlebranch	9
Marlboro	0	Uniontown	0
Marlboro	2	Hartville	2
Marlboro	2	Jackson Twp.	1
Marlboro	12	Uniontown	1
Marlboro	14	Middlebranch	2

During the 1946 season the Dukes will encounter the following team: Middlebranch, Hartville, Minerva and Louisville.

"We're from Marlboro! We couldn't be prouder!"

CHEERLEADERS

Always on the job, our cheerleaders not only gave us pride in their appearance, but also their leadership and yells were outstanding.

At the beginning of the year, the student body elected Margaret Vaughn of the Freshmen class to work with the other cheerleaders.

Eileen Wise, captain, represented the Senior class, Ethel Vaughn, the Junior class, and Joanne Werner, the Sophomore class.
